20. “Enlightened despots (Europe) were not necessarily politically liberal.” Critically examine. [2014, 10 Marks]

Rise of socialist ideas (up to Marx); spread of Marxian Socialism

1. “The Heavenly Land system was significant in that it greatly expanded the idea of equalizing rich and poor and landowning which the peasant wars had put forward in the past.” Comment. [1991, 20 Marks]

2. “Marxian Communism is primarily the offspring of German Hegelianism and French Socialism.” Comment. [2001, 20 Marks]

3. “France was more fertile than Britain in producing new Socialist theories and movements, though they bore less concrete results in France than in Britain.” [2008, 20 Marks]

4. “If we were to define our conception of the State, our answer would be that the State is the banker of the poor. The government would finance and supervise the purchase of productive equipments and the formation of workshops.” In light of the above statement of Louis Blanc, throw light on the Pre-Marxist Socialist Thought in Europe. [2014, 20 Marks]

5. “France was more fertile than Britain in producing new Socialist theories and movements, though they bore less concrete results in France than in Britain.” Critically examine. [2015, 10 Marks]
2. Origin of Modern Politics

(i) European States System.
(ii) American Revolution and the Constitution.
(iii) French revolution and aftermath, 1789-1815.
(iv) American Civil War with reference to Abraham Lincoln and the abolition of slavery.
(v) British Democratic Politics, 1815-1850; Parliamentary Reformers, Free Traders, Chartists

European States System

1. Account for the emergence of the national monarchies in Europe in the sixteenth century. Did the monarchs build the national states less by design than by chance? [1987, 60 Marks]

2. Examine the view that the Thirty Years War (1618-1648) was essentially a contest between the Bourbon and Hapsburg houses for mastery of the Continent of Europe. How for did it settle the issue? [1988, 60 Marks]

3. From the Thirty Years War finally emerged the modern state system of Europe. Do you agree? [1992, 60 Marks]

4. “The Peace of Westphalia ended the reign of theology over the European mind and left the road obstructed but passable for the tentative of reason.” Comment. [1997, 20 Marks]

American Revolution and the Constitution

1. “At the news of the Declaration of Independence crowds gathered to cheer, fire guns and cannon and ring church bells in Philadelphia. Boston and other places, but there were many people in America who did not rejoice.” Comment. [1988, 20 Marks]

3. The American Revolution “was a natural and even expected event in the history of colonial people who had come of age.” Comment. [1995, 20 Marks]

4. The American War of Independence “deprived Great Britain of one empire, but it strengthened the foundations of another”. Comment. [1998, 20 Marks]
